

I am...

a wife and a mother.
a daughter and a sister.
a designer, and an author.
a child of God.

My family....

Growing up it was just me and my older brother.

Now I have been married for 9 years, and been blessed with a son and a daughter.

I have...

- *Explored the world in my childhood.
- *Found joy from the simple life of my Amish friends
- *Finished my teenage years by coming home to Canada
- *A home studio where I fit, because my clutter, is pieces of my life, spread out all around me.
- *Discovered that I am a lousy cook.
- *Found that patience and joy come from children.

...a few of my {favorite} things

{time of year}

Late summer nights

{web sites}

cnn.com

{hobbies} quilting

reading

drawing racing across the water on a sea doo going 4-wheeling with the family

{favorite magazine}

Blueprint

Martha Stewart Weddings

Pottery barn catalogues

American Patchwork & Quilting

{favorite colors}

green

blue

many shades of white

{favorite TV shows}

The Apprentice

Oprah

{favorite places in the world}

*Longwood gardens in Pennsylvania

*The warehouse at RJR fabrics – the fabrics go on forever!

*Lancaster county quilt shops

{to treat myself}

*Long walks out into the country

*A pedicure

*A quiet night, with the house to myself, and tucking in under a pile of quilts, and reading a book.

I like details.
I love an intricate Object that gives you new inspiration every time you look at it.